

SWEET CORN:

The corn you eat is called sweet corn and it sure tastes great! Only 1% of the corn grown in the U.S. is sweet corn. Most of the corn grown in Illinois is field corn and it is used to feed animals, fuel your car, and is also found in 4,000 other products found at the grocery store.

Illinois Corn
ilcorn.org