FIELDS OF CORN CALENDAR

No matter your political affiliation, we all benefit from legislation that protects the interests of production agriculture. Members of the U.S. Congress are constantly making decisions on policy issues ranging from transportation to trade to biofuels. All of us have a responsibility to make sure they understand our policy positions and priorities. CornPAC is a tool that helps us do just that.

Calendars and Posters are $30 each, or 4 for $100
